

FUTURE-PROOFING MY LEADERSHIP BEGINS WITH ME

REGISTRATION CLOSES ON 11 August 2017!

IT BEGINS
WITH NUS

As a leader, how do you equip yourself to lead organisations in this increasingly volatile, uncertain, complex, and ambiguous environment?

In this workshop, participants will future-proof their leadership by exploring three important skills that leaders will need to lead progressive organisations—sensemaking, stakeholder management, and structured innovation. Sensemaking will help give leaders an alternative way to understand business challenges involving shifts in human behaviour. Stakeholder management equips leaders to strategically manage the individuals and groups that affect the organisation's objectives. And structured innovation helps an organisation create real opportunities for change.

DATE

16 August 2017,
Wednesday

TIME

9.00 am to 5.00 pm

VENUE

NUS University Town
Education Resource Centre
(Level 2)
8 College Avenue West
Singapore 138608
ERC Seminar Room 2

FEE

$S856 (includes GST)

THE WORKSHOP WILL COVER THE FOLLOWING:

- Sensemaking
  - How sensemaking using human sciences can help solve complex organisational problems
  - The sensemaking leader
  - The sensemaking process
- Stakeholder management
  - The stakeholder management process
  - Identifying stakeholders
- Assessing and ranking stakeholders
  - Building a stakeholder management strategy
- Structured innovation
  - Understanding the innovation process
  - Fostering an environment conducive to innovation
  - Managing the risks involved in innovation

This leadership programme will be facilitated using a blend of reflective exercises, discussions, experiential exercises, action-learning, role plays, profiling, lectures, coupled with hands-on exercises and practical handles. Participants will be required to share real workplace experiences for discussion during the programme.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

- Professionals, Managers, Executives
  - with high potential for leadership,
  - who are managing other people or teams,
  - with significant leadership responsibilities, or
  - involved in HR and learning and development planning

REGISTER NOW!

SUPPORTING Adult Learners, PROMOTING Lifelong Learning