The research is clear - organisations with strong and healthy cultures do better—they perform better economically, they attract better talent, and they groom and retain the talent. And this is the same for small and medium enterprises (SMEs) as well as multinational corporations (MNCs).

Learn more about organisational culture and how as a leader, you can impact the culture of your organisation for the better.

THE 1-DAY WORKSHOP WILL COVER THE FOLLOWING:
• What is organisational culture?
• What is your organisational script and who are the players?
• How to change the culture of your organisation?

This leadership programme will be facilitated using a blend of reflective exercises, discussions, experiential exercises, action-learning, role plays, profiling, lectures, coupled with hands-on exercises and practical handles. Participants will be required to share real workplace experiences for discussion during the programme.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:
• Professionals, Managers, Executives
  - who are managing other people or teams, or
  - with significant leadership responsibilities
