

Let's make this the decade for decisive action
Mr Raghu Reddiam | Director, Operations and Administration
Global Compact Network Singapore

Synopsis

What is Sustainability and Why do we need sustainability now? Why does it matter to every organization to be part of the sustainability journey? As part of the United Nations what is our strategy and plans to enable corporate journey towards sustainability? What are the challenges and opportunities? What are the contributions of each one of you and can make a difference to our community and world ?

Speaker's Biography

Mr Raghu Reddiam has over 30+ years of experience with 14 years in Shell and 13 years in Motorola., thus has experience in technology and energy sector. He has done global, regional and country roles across countries. The last role was Head of Transformation for Bukom, the largest Shell refinery in the world and the transformation involved people, culture and moving towards sustainability. Presently he is the Director Operations for GCNS, a local UN Chapter with focus on Sustainability, the four areas GCNS focuses at global level are Environment, Labour, Human Rights and Corruption. In Singapore Chapter, GCNS focuses on Carbon, Building Capabilities, Alliances & Membership, Strategic Initiatives which enable advocacy and Youth.

4 November 2022 | 6.30 PM
Online Seminar (via Zoom)

Register here or scan QR code

ABOUT THE MEM PROGRAMME

The Master of Science (Environmental Management) (MEM) programme is a multi-disciplinary integrated programme offered jointly by eight faculties and schools in the National University of Singapore (NUS), demonstrating its broadbased approach to education in the field of the environment. It is hosted by College of Design and Engineering (CDE).

<https://cde.nus.edu.sg/mem/>